

-From the Family-

LaDarius, God put his arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched and saw
you go away.
Although, we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name' sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou annointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgment

When trouble comes to try our souls, we love you friends for standing by. We did not always know what lies ahead but knowing that someone is standing by in love and understanding inspires us and fills us with much needed confidence in God's love and in our ability to handle whatever is before us through faith. Mere words cannot express the gratitude in our hearts for the many acts of kindness shown to us during the illness and demise of our loved one. Our prayer is that God will richly bless each of you.

We Miss You Daddy!

You never said I’m leaving,
You never said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times we’ll need you,
A million times we’ll cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our heart’s you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill.
