Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair, perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer or called or text. Perhaps you sang a cheerful song; if so, we heard it all. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, or maybe lended a helping hand. Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Whatever you did to console our hearts, by word or deed or touch, whatever the kindly part, we thank you, oh so very much. We just want to say thank you!

Daughters Message:

She has been going through for so long.
The day has finally come for Mom to transition home!

She has been a warrior, courageous to the end!
We love you Mom, and we shall see you again.
Our hearts are heavy, our heads tilted low, our walk is steady while our tears flow!

Then a voice told us, “It is time to let go!”
Not forever though, because this is the way we must all go!

We love you Mom, and we will see you again!
We shall see you again!

There is a time we must all go!
Hold your heads up! Stand tall! God loves us all!

“God saw you were getting tired”

God saw you were getting tired and you were ready,

So, He put his arms around you, and whispered “Come to Me.”

With tearful eyes we watched you as you slowly slipped away,
And though we loved you dearly we couldn’t make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating, your hands & body put to rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.
We will forever love you, Momma!
