"A Letter From Heaven"

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

Obituary

Sis. Lois Marie Mumphrey was born June 19, 1926 in Little River Ashdown, Arkansas to the late Mr. Edmon Bailey and Lomas Bailey. She attended school at Ned E. Williams High School in Longview, TX. She confessed Christ at an early age. She was a member of Mount Moriah Baptist Church of Kilgore, TX, where she was a member of the choir until her health started to fail. She was a homemaker who loved to sew, cook, and care for others' children. She always made friends of the family feel welcome like they were her own children. She was known as "Mother Dear" or "Momo." She married Robert Lee Mumphrey and from this union five children were born.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, brothers Edmond Bailey Jr. and Elliot Bailey, sister Corrine Wright, and son Frank Mumphrey.

She leaves to cherish her memories: four children Jerry Mumphrey (Geneva) of Dallas, TX, Johnny Mumphrey (Joann) of Kilgore, TX, Annie Lois Yarborough of Kilgore, TX, Annie Ruth Roberson (Nathan) of Kilgore, TX; two sisters Madeline Robinson (James) of Dallas, TX and Army Jean Woodard of Longview, TX; one brother Paul Bailey (Edwina) of Dallas, TX; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
