

Book of Psalms
A Psalm of David

23. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. 5. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. 6. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Acknowledgement of Thanks

Thank you to everyone for your continued prayers and words of comfort. Thank you, Renee 'Cunningham, of Cunningham Funeral Home, for your kindness and support through this difficult time. We are truly grateful.

In Loving Memory

James (Shorty)
Ross

Wednesday, January 23, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.

Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery
2000 Mountain Creek Pkwy, Dallas, TX

James L. Ross, affectionately known as "Shorty", was born to the late Leroy and Carrie Ross. James was one of eleven children, Gerlene, Billie Jean, Robert, Ella Ruth, Charles, John, Leroy, Jr., Eddie, Debra, and Barbara. James grew up in a big and loving family. James joined church at an early age. He attended school in the Kilgore, TX school system and graduated from C.B. Dansby High School in 1967.

After high school, James was drafted into the United States Army. After serving in the military, he returned to Kilgore and married his high school sweetheart, Anita June Rossum. After the couple married, they settled in Kansas City, Missouri where their first daughter, LaTanya Ross was born. After three years, the couple decided to move back to Texas and chose Dallas as their new home. Here, their second daughter, Kinda Ross Lilly was born.

James later joined the National Guard, which he loved. James was later employed with Proctor and Gamble, Co. for several years. He later became employed with the Veteran's Hospital.

James is survived by his devoted wife, Anita, two daughters LaTanya Ross and Kinda Ross Lilly (Sylvester) and his two grandchildren, Savannah and Sylvester, whom he loved dearly. James will forever live in the hearts and minds of his friends and family and will be truly missed.

Order of Service

Processional ..... Family

Reading of Scriptures.....Pastor Jeanetta Walk

Prayers of Comfort.....Pastor Jeanetta Walk

Presentation of Flag

Expressions ..... Friends & Family